Hwa-kang Journal of Philosophy Announcement for Suspension of Publication

Hwa-kang Journal of Philosophy is an independent journal in philosophy which began with a very small amount of funding from the staff of the department of philosophy, Chinese Culture University, Taiwan, in 2008. The journal publishes academic research papers and book reviews in philosophy. It is an annual journal and published in June. Since the first issue published in 2009, there have been six issues. Now we regret that the journal will suspend publication after the sixth issue.

An index is on the previous pages. To all authors and referees either abroad or in Taiwan, Hwa-kang Journal of Philosophy is deeply grateful.
